While in Israel, Congresswoman Ros-Lehtinen meets with Prime Minister Sharon to discuss the vital security of the region

ILEANA FIGHTS AGAINST DIGITAL TERRORISM

Joined by Rabbi Abraham Cooper, I led a briefing on digital terrorism and ways in which the government can combat it. This briefing exposed the growing use of the Internet as a key propaganda weapon, marketing tool and fundraising engine for supporters of terrorist groups such as al Qaeda and Hamas, as well as neo-Nazi, Skinhead, and other hate groups on both sides of the Atlantic. I will continue to provide avenues for parents, law enforcement and governments so that they can combat this cowardly and evil form of hate.

ILEANA ON THE HOUSE FLOOR ENSURING ISRAEL'S SAFETY

I have introduced legislation that will curtail terrorism against Israel. From the Syria Accountability Act to the Iran and Libya Sanctions Enforcement Act, I have been at the forefront of confronting the enemies of democracy. I have consistently supported legislation that condemns homicide bombings, the biased educational curriculum in Saudi Arabia, and the escalation of anti-Semitism in Europe. Israel must remain vigilant in its fight against terrorism and has no better friend than the U.S. Congress when dealing with terrorists.

ILEANA MEETS WITH WORLD LEADERS TO ENSURE ISRAEL'S SECURITY

I regularly meet with both international leaders and concerned constituents. Recently, I have met with Marwan Muasher, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Jordan and Marc Otte, the European Union's Special Representative to the Middle East Peace Process, to address the internal security of Israel and stability in the region. Briefings were held with my colleagues and Assistant Secretary William J. Burns regarding developments in the Israeli-Palestinian peace process.

Ileana meets with Rabbi Lipskar to address issues vital to Israel

ILEANA WORKS TO ENSURE ISRAEL'S RIGHT TO DEFEND BORDERS

I have led my colleagues in communicating with the Administration on Israel's right to defend its borders. In addition to communicating with the Attorney General concerning efforts by Holocaust survivors to achieve justice, I have worked with the Department of State to include the fate of missing Jews when dealing with the issue of Iran. It has been, and will continue to be, my unconditional position to preserve the safety of Israel and its people.
